Goal Worksheet

Because the method you ultimately create will depend a lot on what your goal is with the language you seek to learn, determining your goal is one of the most important steps!

Part A - Activities

What do you want to be able to do, in the target language? The more specific, the better! Complete the following sentence:

| llow | ring sentence:            |                                  |
|------|---------------------------|----------------------------------|
|      | In the                    | _ language, I want to be able to |
|      |                           |                                  |
| •    | Example: watch Science F  | iction movies without subtitles  |
| •    | Example: talk about socce | r with other sports fans         |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
| •    |                           |                                  |
|      |                           |                                  |

Of the things you wrote above, please circle the three that are most important to you! Which get you the most excited?

Part B - Skills

Looking at the three most important activities you circled above, please put the following language skills into one of the two boxes: pronunciation, vocabulary, correct grammar, listening, reading, writing.

(I purposely left out speaking since it's really a combination of several skills namely pronunciation and listening.)

| Less important         | More important     |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| Example: pronunciation | Example: listening |
|                        |                    |
|                        |                    |
|                        |                    |
|                        |                    |
|                        |                    |

Part C - Describe your goal

Using the information from Parts A and B, write 1 sentence that encompasses everything your goal includes and leaves out everything that isn't part of your goal. Please see my advise in Section 9.3!

Example: I want to be able to understand, speak and write comfortably on all the same topics that I enjoy in my native language.

Example: I want to be able to write and give Power Point presentations in a business setting and be able to respond fluidly to questions from peers.

Example: I want to be able to speak and understand well enough to visit other countries as a tourist and make friends, order in a restaurant and understand tour guides.

| Your goal |
|-----------|
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
|           |
